CALL TO WORSHIP

Dear Friends, let us love one another, because love comes from God.

We love because God first loved us.

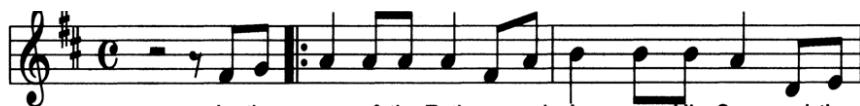

If someone says, "I love God," yet hates a brother or sister, that person is a liar.

For one cannot love God, who is not seen; if one does not love a brother or sister who is seen.

This, then, is the command Christ gave us: anyone who loves God must also love a brother or sister.

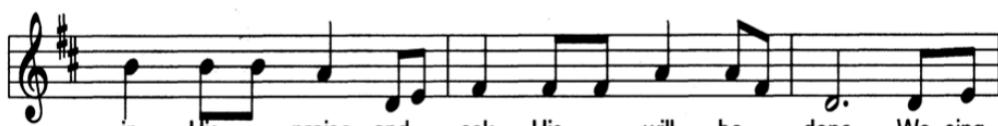

O, Divine Master, grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand to be loved as to love. Amen.

CONFESSTION AND FORGIVENESS.

Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart, and confess our sin to God, imploring God in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

(Silence for reflection and self-examination)

Almighty God, our Maker and Redeemer, we poor sinners confess to you that we are by nature sinful and unclean, and that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed. Therefore we flee for refuge to your infinite grace and ask for the forgiveness of all our sins, for the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. May your Holy Spirit increase in us true knowledge of your will and true faithfulness to your Word, so that by your grace we may come to everlasting life. Amen.

By virtue of my office, as a called pastor of the church of Christ, and by the command of my Lord Jesus, I declare to you the forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen!

Give us this day our daily bread;

He did not come to teach the teachable;
He did not come to improve the improvable;
He did not come to reform the reformable.
None of those things work."
